BENEFITS TO STUDYING IN THE UK

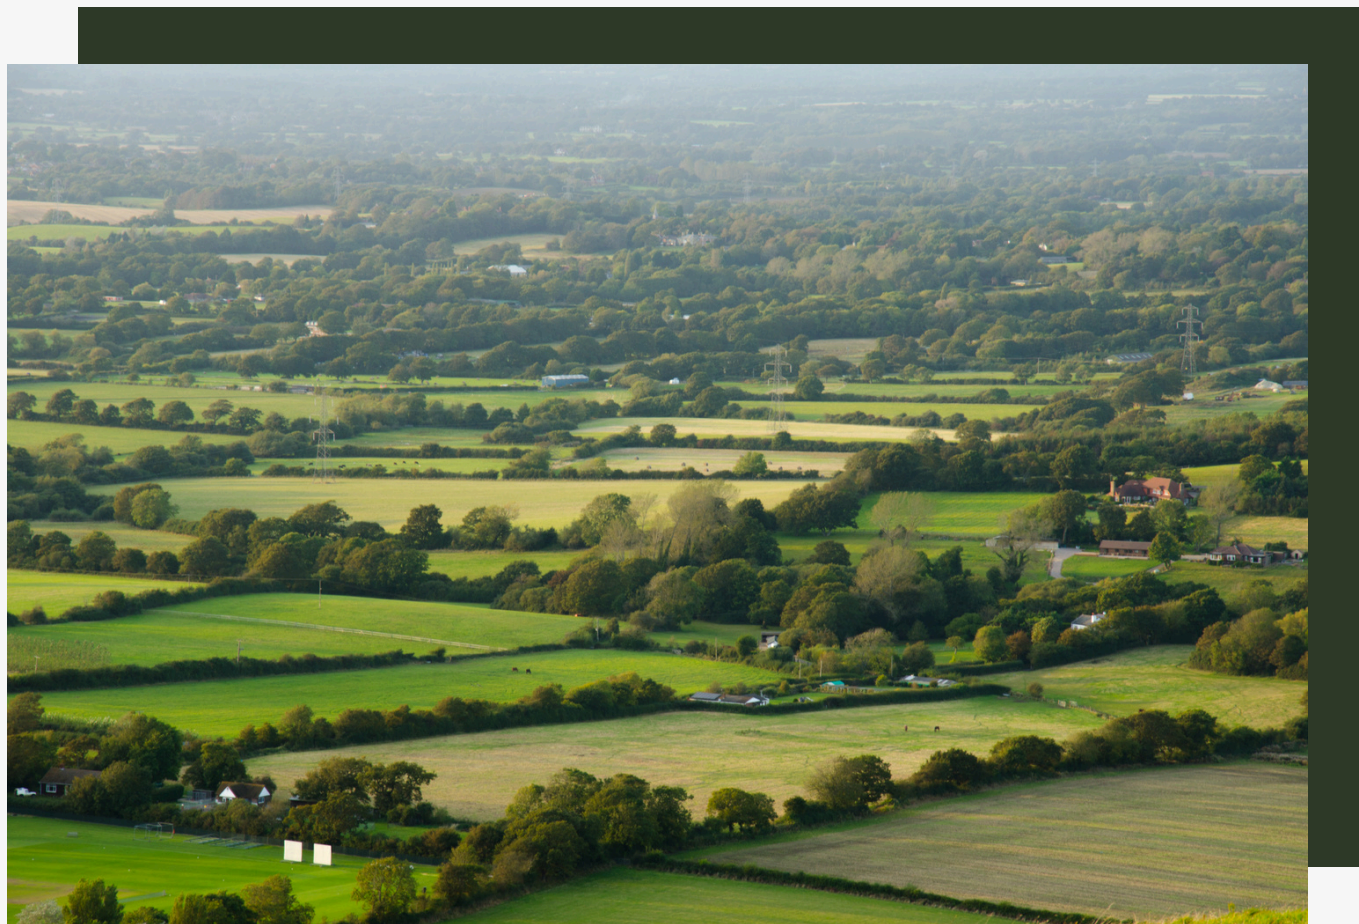

World class education system: The UK is home to some of the top ranking school and universities with qualifications recognised and respected globally.

Rich history and culture: There are many landmarks, museums, parks, restaurants and more for students to explore.

Work placements: Whilst in university many courses provide valuable work experience.

Access to Europe: The geographical location means it is quick and easy to travel to a number of European countries.

Student support services: There are a number of services provided to international students to help them settle for example, orientation days, language assistance and counselling sessions.

VISA SUPPORT

As a regulated UK law firm, our in house team of lawyers and legal professionals provide tailored visa assistance for students and advice for their whole family. Our legal team can guide you seamlessly through the visa process ensuring the timely submission of all necessary documents with the Home Office.

By choosing our law firm, students and parents of child students, can rest assured that their academic adventure in UK gets off to a smooth start.

“ Very professional and easy to work with team. They have a wealth of knowledge and they genuinely go the extra mile to help. ”

PERSONALISED APPROACH

At Queensbury, we cultivate a personal approach when it comes to helping our clients. We understand that each student is unique, with distinct academic goals, preferences, and cultural backgrounds. Therefore, we go beyond a one-size-fits-all strategy and embrace a tailored approach

We are committed partners in your educational journey. We strive to make the application process not only efficient but also a stepping stone towards your academic success. Our personal touch ensures that your aspirations are not only met but exceeded, creating a pathway for a brighter future.
