UK – BUSINESS IMMIGRATION

SPONSOR LICENCE

If you are an employer seeking to hire an overseas national who is not a settled worker and does not have immigration permission to work for you in the UK, you will need to apply to the Home Office for a sponsor licence. The type of sponsor licence application you need will depend on the immigration route the overseas worker is seeking. We can assist you with:

- Sponsor Licence Application
- Training on how to use the Sponsor Management System, including applying for or assigning Certificate of Sponsorship documents and updating the Home Office on important changes
- Sponsor Compliance and the Home Office compliance visits

SELF-SPONSORSHIP

If you are looking to establish a new business in the UK or already own an existing UK business, you may qualify for a UK Skilled Worker visa through self-sponsorship by having your own UK company sponsor you. To do this, your UK business must first obtain a UK Skilled Worker sponsor licence before you can apply for the visa through self-sponsorship.

INNOVATOR FOUNDER VISA

This business visa is designed for start-up entrepreneurs and experienced businesspersons who want to establish a business in the UK. Applicants must have an innovative, viable, and scalable business idea supported by a business plan that has been approved by an endorsing body. There is no requirement to invest a specific amount in the business

GLOBAL BUSINESS MOBILITY – UK EXPANSION WORKER VISA

The UK Expansion Worker Visa route can only be used when the UK business has not yet started trading. This visa is for senior managers and specialist employees who wish to be temporarily assigned to the UK to undertake work related to the expansion of an overseas business. While the UK Expansion Worker Visa does not directly lead to settlement in the UK, you may be able to switch to another immigration route that does lead to settlement.

GLOBAL BUSINESS MOBILITY – UK SENIOR OR SPECIALIST WORKER VISA

This route is designed for senior managers and specialist employees who wish to undertake a temporary work assignment in the UK. The overseas worker must be assigned to a UK business connected to their overseas employer. This visa does not lead to settlement, but it can be extended under certain conditions.

UK TEMPORARY WORK – GOVERNMENT AUTHORISED EXCHANGE VISA

This category is available to individuals who wish to come to the UK for 12 or 24 months to participate in work experience or to do training, an Overseas Government Language Programme, research or a fellowship through an approved government authorised exchange scheme.

Applicants must have a valid Certificate of Sponsorship for the role they plan to undertake, issued by an overarching body with a valid UK Temporary Work – Government Authorised Exchange sponsor licence.

While this visa does not lead to settlement, individuals on this route can be accompanied by a dependent partner and children under 18.

UK - PERSONAL IMMIGRATION

SKILLED WORKER VISA

This route is available to individuals of any nationality who have received an offer for a skilled job in the UK from a sponsor approved by the Home Office. This visa can lead to settlement, and applicants can bring their dependent partners and children with them.

To obtain a UK Skilled Worker Visa, you must be sponsored by a Home Office-licensed employer for a specific job that meets specified skill and salary criteria.

STUDENT VISAS

To apply for a Student visa in the UK, applicants must be at least 16 years old and fulfil specific requirements: they must have received a course offer from a licensed student sponsor, demonstrate adequate financial resources to support themselves and pay for their course, show proficiency in English language skills across all aspects, and if aged 16 or 17, provide documented parental consent as part of the application process.

GRADUATE VISA

The Graduate Visa permits international students who have finished an eligible UK degree to remain in the UK for up to two years (three years for those awarded doctorates) to work or seek employment after completing their studies.

While the Graduate Visa itself does not directly lead to settlement, graduates under this route can transition to other work-based visas that may lead to settlement.

SPOUSE VISA

The UK Spouse Visa is for married partners of British or Irish citizens, individuals settled in the UK, those with pre-settled status, holders of a Turkish Businessperson or Turkish Worker visa, and individuals with refugee status or humanitarian protection who want to join or remain with their spouse in the UK. You and your partner must intend to live together permanently in the UK after you apply. After a period of 5 years, the UK Spouse Visa can lead to indefinite leave to remain or settlement in the UK.

UK GLOBAL TALENT VISA

You can apply for a Global Talent visa to work in the UK if you are a leader or potential leader in fields such as academia or research, arts and culture, or digital technology. Applicants must be at least 18 years old.
